

I am opposed to raising the ownership caps on broadcast stations. My experience of the changes since 1996 is a reduction in news outlets and less diversity, not more. The public interest would not be served by allowing corporations to own even more broadcast outlets. At the very least, the FCC should allow a greater time for public comment on the specific rules that are being proposed, since we don't even know what those are at this time.